2 And also, I mean, you know, he's arguing a
3 bit of the -- of the merit, but, I mean, they -- they 4 have an obligation to provide notice that they've 5 walled the -- the ^{U.S.} US Attorney off, and they never 6 provided any kind of notice to us whatsoever. I mean
7 that I see nothing where anybody said anything about 8 this memorandum of recusal ^{use,} or any kind of notice to 9 either my client or the Court during any point in 10 this litigation.

11 THE COURT: All right. It sounds ^{to} me like 12 there's a dispute on the merits, and that's not a 13 shock. It also sounds to me like Mr. Delorme says he 14 needs more time ^{use,} and the defense doesn't object to 15 that.

16 My question is, Mr. Delorme, how much time do
17 you need?

18 ^{MR.} ^{MRS.} DELORME: That's the problem I have,
19 Your Honor. I can't dictate, you know, what happens
20 ^{in Washington} ^{inWashington.}

21 ^{use,} I know as soon as we had the discussion via 22 e-mail about setting a hearing and potentially calling 23 USA Purdon, we began the process of contacting the 24 folks that we need to in D.C., and we've had some 25 responses back. I'm expecting, hopefully, ^{use,} within the
