family with a deadly weapon and causing serious bodily injury and so say by your verdict.

use,

use,

Unless you find beyond a reasonable doubt or if you have a reasonable doubt thereof, you will acquit the defendant of the offense of aggravated assault on a member of the defendant's family with a deadly weapon and causing serious bodily injury, and you will next consider if the defendant is guilty of the lesser offense of aggravated assault on a member of the defendant's family as described by Section 71.003 of the Texas Family Code with a deadly weapon in causing bodily injury.

ideally keep the first one, unless its verbatim, and you keep both.

Now, bearing in mind, if you find beyond a reasonable doubt that in Lubbock County, Texas, on or about March 5, 2024, in Lubbock County, Texas, the defendant did then and there intentionally, knowingly or recklessly cause bodily injury to Alonso Estrada, hereafter styled the complainant, by discharging a firearm, and the defendant used or exhibited a deadly weapon, namely a firearm, during the commission of the use ;

assault, and the complainant was a member of the defendant's family as described by Section 71.003 of the use ;

Texas Family Code, then you'll find the defendant guilty of the offense of aggravated assault on a member of the defendant's family with a deadly weapon and causing
