

11:24:33 1 March 5, 2024, that's what's important. ~~The~~ <sup>use -</sup> snapshot.
2 No one is saying that <sup>the</sup> is a bad person, but
3 he did a bad thing. I think he knows that.
4 In trying to skirt accountability and
11:24:54 5 responsibility by just saying, "It was an accident. I
~~change to: mean to," - those ...~~
6 didn't ~~mean to.~~ Those are self-serving statements. He
7 wants the third-degree felony. <sup>what's the evidence showing?</sup>
<sup>what does the evidence show?</sup>
8 But, members of the jury, <sup>what's the</sup>
9 <sup>evidence show?</sup> <sup>What's the evidence show on</sup> March 5, 11:25:12 10 2024? Not the months before that led up to it. What
11 happened on that day?
12 All that other stuff, that could be
<sup>use,</sup>
13 considered later if y'all believe we proved our case
14 beyond a reasonable doubt. And I assert that we did.
11:25:27 15 It's not a hundred percent. You don't need all the 16 puzzle pieces. Y'all know this. You don't need all
17 the -- all the picture of the Jones.
18 The elements, it's been talked about. No
19 questions on those green checkmarks. No question.
11:25:42 20 Beyond a reasonable doubt, I say there's
21 not even a question on that.
22 But let's talk about serious bodily
23 injury. I assert to you that there is. Y'all know the 24 definition of serious bodily injury. Substantial risk
11:25:54 25 of death. Getting shot in <sup>... the face, that's a...</sup> the face. That's a
